

Shower Compliments Virginia Zamperini

Honoring her sister, Miss Virginia Zamperini, Mrs. Harvey Flumer was the hostess of a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower given Sunday at the La Canada home of Mrs. Verne May. Miss Zamperini will become the bride of Howard Gordon Flye on Sept. 19.

Pastel pink and green were effectively used throughout the decorations and the menu. A pale pink parasol, banked with pink amaryllis and maidenhair fern, centered the table, and placed individual cakes inscribed with the guests' names in green. Nosegay-shaped ice cream placed on lace paper doilies complemented the dainty motif.

The bride-to-be wore a lovely corsage, a gift from her fiancé. Shower games were played and the winners were Miss Erma Lemker, Miss Patty May and Mrs. Bea Epstein.

Guests present were Mrs. Anthony Zamperini, mother of the bride-to-be; Mrs. Louis Zamperini and Miss Doris Aull of Hollywood; Mesdames Mary Dossi,

Mary Gatto, Margaret Dossi, Edith Bishop, Theresa Campstriani, all of Wilmington; Rosalie Perconti, Marie Grana and Bea Epstein, all of Los Angeles; Alice Carter of Beverly Hills; Grace Green and Misses Jane Elsaesser, Charlotte Berkus and Gladys Lemker.

LISMANS NOTE TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING DATE

Many friends and acquaintances of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Lisman, 1503 Post avenue, gathered at their home Sunday, when the couple entertained at a reception from 3 to 6 o'clock, marking their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Centering the table were a tiered wedding cake, topped with silver bells, and a floral spray with a candle motif, from which silver wedding rings were suspended.

The rooms of the home were decorated with attractively arranged flowers, many of them gifts to Dr. and Mrs. Lisman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kling at Home After Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edward Kling are at home in Lomita, following a wedding trip to Yosemite, Nevada, and Yellowstone. Mrs. Kling is the former Martha Elizabeth Dorris, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Dorris of 1654 W. 214th street. Mr. Kling is the son of Mrs. L. F. Birdsell of Carlin, Nevada.

The couple was married in an impressive ceremony of charming simplicity at the First Baptist Church, July 31 at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor of the church officiated at the double ring service before 125 guests.

Given in marriage by her brother, Floyd Dorris, the bride wore a white wool gabardine suit with matching accessories. Her only jewelry was a gold choker, a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a white Bible with a white orchid affixed to the cover.

Miss Joimetta Dorris was her sister's only attendant. Attired in a blue wool gabardine suit with blue and white accessories, she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Howard Johnson served the bridegroom as best man, and ushers were Phillip MacHale and Fred Stock.

Miss Joanne Tuck, organist, played, "Always," and "Sweethearts," preceding the ceremony, and accompanied Ray White, who sang, "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the social hall of the church. The five-tiered wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Harry Bender, assisted by Miss Ruby Dorris. Mrs. Mary Stetson, sister of the bride, served punch, and Miss Ruth Dorris was in charge of the bride's book.

Out-of-town guests present were Mrs. Myrtle Kling of Sanger, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnston of Menlo Park, and Mrs. Ann Hammond and daughter, Donna, of Antioch, Calif.

Mrs. Kling graduated from Torrance high school with the class of 1946. She is also a grad
